

Allen Randolph Charity Sr

June 10, 1959 - February 3, 2021

Today we honor the life and celebrate the Homegoing of a loving and caring man, Allen Randolph Charity, Sr, who entered into eternal rest on Wednesday, February 3, 2021.

Allen, affectionately known to family and friends as "Duma", was born on June 10, 1959 in Ahoskie, North Carolina to the late Doris Porter Charity and James (Johnny) Charity.

At an early age, Allen gave his life to Christ and became a faithful and active member of Jordan Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

Allen attended Hertford County Public School and graduated from Murfreesboro High School. He was an avid sports fan and an awesome point guard for Murfreesboro High School's basketball team.

Allen also assisted Coach Bernard Reynolds in coaching at Atlantic City High School in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

As everyone knows, Allen was a die-hard Dallas Cowboys fan.

Allen sought employment and found work at Carolina Aluminum in Winton, North Carolina, and later the Town of Winton. After working with the Town of Winton, he found employment at the Smithfield Meat and Packing Company in Smithfield, Virginia where he worked until failing health.

Allen was humble and very caring. He was a "one of a kind" type of guy, a joy to be around and never too busy to help others in the community or where ever help was needed. One would say, and agree, Allen never met a stranger.

He was fun and loving and a friend to everyone. He was a genuine lover of people with a heart of gold. He cherished and loved family, church and friends. He especially loved social gatherings where there was plenty of good food and much laughter.

Allen was preceded in death by his mother, Doris Charity; his father, James (Johnny) Charity his brother, Larry Charity; and his nephew, Dante Harris. Allen leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Brenda Morris-Charity of Raleigh, North Carolina; his son, Allen Randolph Charity, Jr. of Meriden , Connecticut; step-daughter, Tasha White; brother, Fredrick L. Charity (Daphine) of Richmond, Virginia; devoted friends and "Second Mom", Mrs. Virginia Reynolds; grandchildren, Allen Randolph Charity, III and Averii Ryan Charity, Chase White and De'Andra White; nephew, Antonio Marsden; great-niece, Aleana Harris and a host of relatives and friends.

Never thought just seeing you a week ago would be the last time that you and I talk. Nut everything has a time and reason. Your last words was "Luz U Cuz". Keep Smiling, and Take that Walk Proudly. WINTON FOR LIFE.

“ Duma...Dumas...friend...confidant...baller...homeboy...brother...die-hard Cowboys fan...Raider...AC crew... and so much more.....

*I loved you like a brother
Was happy to share my mother
Your love and giving always came through
Many visits home, you came because you knew
We'd laugh, reminisce, and maybe have a few
If only you knew how this is breaking me to write this right now
As I shed these tears, I also God will see me through somehow
I'm not ready to say goodbye; but I really have no choice
I can only hope and pray I'm as strong as you
When it's my turn to answer to HIS voice
So rest in peace my friend
For we shall surely meet again*

*With all my love,
Silva Reynolds*

Randolph, I'm gonna miss your calls, about food, dallas cowboys, fussing cause Freddie hadn't called, looking up phone numbers. We know to be absent from the body is to be present with God. Take your rest, no more pain my brother, God loved you best and didn't want you suffering anymore.
