

Alton Travis Baker

January 4, 1951 - October 19, 2021

Alton Travis Baker was born on January 4, 1951, in Gates, North Carolina to the late Theodore Roosevelt and Janet Hinton Baker.

Being the product of a Christian home, at an early age, he joined New Middle Swamp Baptist Church in Corapeake, North Carolina, where he remained faithful. Alton served faithfully as a Trustee, Senior Usher, Men's Day Captain, Men's Fellowship, Senior Ministry, and Bible Study.

In 1969, he graduated from Central High School, Gatesville, North Carolina. After graduation, he was employed for a brief period of time with Planter's Peanut Company, Suffolk, Virginia. In 1970, Alton joined the United States Air Force. After retiring from the military, in 1981 he was employed by the Newport News Shipyard, Newport News, Virginia, and remained there until retirement.

Alton was preceded in death by his parents, his brother, Delton Baker, and his sister, Joyce B. Middleton.

Left to cherish his memories are three sisters, Verlie Baker of Richmond, Virginia, Sharon B. Savage (Joel) of Corapeake, North Carolina, and Elaine B. Jones of Raleigh, North Carolina; nephews, Kimothy Jones, Jr. of Norfolk, Virginia, Delton R. Jones, of Raleigh, North Carolina, and Joel Savage, Jr. of Corapeake, North Carolina; one niece, Shareka S. Washington of Greenville, North Carolina; and a host of cousins and friends.
