

Alton Majette

October 30, 1948 - September 9, 2022

Alton Majette, son of the late Cleveland and Gracie Marsh Majette, was born in Murfreesboro, North Carolina, on October 30, 1948.

He attended North Hampton County Schools and later moved to Washington, DC.

He departed this life for Eternal Rest on Thursday, September 9, 2022, at Howard University Hospital, Washington, DC.

Alton, also affectionately known as Al, Reds, D, and Cowboy, enjoyed life to the fullest. He was named "Cowboy" for his unwavering support of the Dallas Cowboys football team. In addition to watching his favorite team play, he also loved to dance, play cards, fish, garden (Garden of Love}, and honor and praise God.

He joined Nebo Baptist Church at a young age and later attended the Upper Room Baptist Church, where he served in the Men's Ministry. He will always be remembered as the sharp-dressing Cowboy's fan who loved bringing his grandchildren to church and spreading love to his community.

Alton leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Jacqueline Kornegay Sara (Michael), Kelvin Majette, Alton Ray Pernell, and Kristen Pernell; his stepsons Tony Pernell and Gregory Pernell; a special nephew/adopted son Allen Burke (Pam); sisters, Shirley Majette, Janie Martin, and Cynthia Banks; brothers John Majette and Jessie Majette; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ The seniors at Deanwood Center and Kenilworth Center new Alton as Cowboy. Alton will dearly be missed by all. His cheerful smile and his hearty laughter will be remembered by all. He would enter the Center the day after a football game and say, "How about them cowboys".
