“ Liesssss! One of our favorite expressions and terms. This is exactly what I am feeling right now. This has to be a lie!!! I was wondering why you haven't been picking up for me. When I spoke to you last I was so proud of you about all your accomplishments and progress. We met when we were young and full with so many hopes and dreams working the restaurant life. We grew and watched each other thrive through the ups and downs of life. You brought so much joy to me and many others! You were so loving and giving even when you didn't have it you were always willing to look out for others. I'm in tears right now I cannot believe what I am seeing. I will miss you so much I can't even describe it. You were a real friend and I will miss you terribly!! RIP to my one of a kind friend! I love you and will miss you and will never forget you!!! 💔💔💔💔💔

“ Rest in Heavenly Peace my friend. You were a beautiful Spirit. I enjoyed our talks and laughs while working together briefly in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer, NRC. Always happy and upbeat. Sending love to the family, my deepest condolences.

My play son you will be missed; and you are missed now. I am soooo blessed to have known you and been a part of your short-lived life. We had some great times talking, laughing and eating. Once you moved from the neighborhood, both of us would say, just how much we missed being neighbors, living a few doors away from each other. Brandon, you were such a giver and had a heart for people, especially people down and out. I learned so much from you and your unselfish giving and caring for others. My friend/son you are now home with Jesus, live on!

“ Words seem so feeble in moments like these. Life is so precious and death such a thief. Love is a bond that death cannot part. Brandon you are gone from our presence but will always remain in our hearts. Rest in heaven my friend!
