

Calvin Faison

July 29, 1959 - January 19, 2020

On Sunday, January 19, 2020, God summoned Calvin Faison to return back unto Him.

Calvin Faison affectionately known to all as "The TV Man", was born on July 29, 1959 to the late Roscoe and Mary Faison of Murfreesboro, North Carolina.

He joined Parker's Grove Baptist Church of Mapleton, North Carolina. He received his education in the Hertford County Public School System. He attended Roanoke-Chowan Technical College in Ahoskie, North Carolina and Pitt Community College in Greenville, North Carolina where he majored in electronics.

He was employed at Family Owned Business, WENCHES, and SAMS TV in Raleigh, North Carolina until he branched out on his own and launched Calvin's TV. Calvin's favorite slogan was, "If I can't fix it, It Aint Broke".

Calvin was preceded in death by his parents, Roscoe and Mary Faison of Murfreesboro, North Carolina and two brothers, Ronald and Charles Faison.

Calvin leaves to cherish his loving memory; his sisters, Joyce Faison and Brenda Alcorn both of Raleigh, North Carolina, Sharon Boyce of Woodland, North Carolina; his brothers, Larry Faison (Catherine) of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, Gary Faison (Catherine) of Como, North Carolina, Ivy Faison (Candice) of Raleigh, North Carolina, Curtis White (Lisa) of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Ricky Faison (Goldie) of Raleigh, North Carolina; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ One of my best memories is the reason why he would always call me his FAVORITE neice in exchange for one of his die heart country meals. As soon as he opened his door, he'd reach out to grab that small little brown paper bag smiling as he yelled, "Come on in Uncle Calvin's FAVORITE neice!" 😊
Rest in peace, Uncle Calvin

I really got to know Calvin when he was staying Raleigh. We would sit around laugh and talk and do grown-up things. To the family, I know you will miss him. I extended condolence during your time of bereavement.
