“ Corey was my first cousin on the Bynum side. I can remember my aunt Helena coming to my grandma's house every evening and bringing Corey and the other siblings to play. I have always known Corey to be a quiet child. Even though I didn't see him much his memory will always stay with me. You're going to be miss cuz. Rest in heaven with the family now. From Lisa Hawkins and family. Please keep my family in your prayers

“ Corey could always make you laugh. He gave me, my sisters and brother nicknames. He got that from my Uncle Fred. My nick name was Old Becky Roodee (Becky), Teesha Rabbit (lakesha), Ronica (Veronica), Floyd Patterson (Floyd). While he may be physically gone, I know he'll still be here in spirit. I'll miss you Corey! I love you!

JE

I was crushed when I heard about Corey. He lived across the hallway from me on Rogers St. I moved to Virginia in August. He always interacted with my sister and sister in law, they would sit in the breezeway and talk. My heart felt sympathy goes out to his family. He is in God's memory now. Please stay close to God and each other.
