“Granny, I will miss you so much. I tried my best to fit my feelings for you into three minutes of reflection during the memorial, but I already knew there was no way i was going to be able to accomplish that.

I can't thank you enough for just being the woman you were to me. You have called me "Angel girl" all my life, and little did I know that your nickname for me along with other words of encouragement would contribute to planting the seed of building confidence for myself. Thank you for consistently speaking love into me, thank you bragging about me to your friends lol, and like I told you before, thank you for being my grandma, lord knows I wouldn't have it any other way 💜 I will miss our family road trips & vacations out of the country, your laugh, your smile... I will miss your kind & giving heart But most importantly, your sweet face & warm energy. It has been an honor being your granddaughter & making you proud & it has been even more of an honor having the privilege to call you grandma 😭💜 I love you so much granny. Like you always said, we will "Keep on keeping on" 🥰

“ Deloris, thank you for the thirty plus years of friendship 💜. You were the best mother in law anyone could ever ask for. You were there for me when my mom passed away, you were right there in the British Virgin Islands supporting Charisse when she got married, and your unwavering support for Tyla when she was in college - always sending her care packages. You were my phone buddy, time would just get away from us, spending hours on the phone together. I am going to miss you so much, may your memory be a blessing. I love you 💜
