“ My sincere condolences to the entire family. Ms Snook, was a very dear friend to my mom Dorothy Draughn and the Draughn family. We're very grateful for that. We made sure she was a part of my mom's 90th birthday celebration last year. They enjoyed each other's company. I asked how old she was and she said 98. I told you don't even look like you're that old. Ms Eva will truly be missed. I will keep the entire family in my prayers. Renee Draughn Jackson & the Draughn family.

“ I love you for your strength, patience, kindness and caring heart. Thank you for allowing me to stay at your house almost every weekend. You never complained all those late nights when we came in late nights after partying and then eating all your ham, bread and cheese lol. Never forget all our family trip especially in that station wagon. You and mom never left none of your children when it was time to hit the road. S.I.P Aunt Snook
