

Gilbert Cumbo Sr

October 21, 1938 - March 29, 2020

Gilbert Cumbo, Sr, 81, died unexpectedly on Sunday, March 29th, 2020. He was born in Northampton County, North Carolina, the son of the late Ralph (Rat) Cumbo and Mary Elizabeth Edwards.

As a young man, Gilbert moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he married the late Ethel (Essie) Stevenson, and started a family. Gilbert was known as a jack of all trades. He was a proud, loving, and caring son, brother, husband, grandfather, great father and uncle, known as Uncle Bo!

He was the first black owned and operated limousine services in Conway, North Carolina. He worked many years doing several jobs. He retired from Northampton County Public Works in 2004.

Gilbert leaves behind, his wife, Josephine (Peebles) Cumbo and three daughters, Gilda Cumbo, and Milissa Cumbo Randall both of Baltimore, Maryland and Subrinia Cumbo Earley of Ahoskie/Conway, North Carolina; two sisters, Annie Reese Porter of Baltimore, Maryland, and Bernice Lee Vaughan of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; a host of grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, including one very special granddaughter, Sabri Marissa Williams of Winston Salem/Conway, North Carolina, and several nieces and nephews.

Gilbert touched the lives of many and will be missed by many.
