

Ida Ruth Manley

July 7, 1929 - June 21, 2019

Ida Ruth Manley was born on July 7, 1929 to the late Walter and Eugenia Collins. She departed this life, after a brief illness, on Friday, June 21, 2019 at the Brian Center in Windsor, North Carolina.

Ida Ruth became a member of Mount Pleasant Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. After graduating from CS Brown High School in Winton, North Carolina, she moved to New York.

Ida Ruth lived in New York for many years, working as a printer. After retirement, she returned to her hometown to live and rejoined her home church.

Ida Ruth served faithfully at MPMBC. She became involved with the Willing Workers, the Usher Board, the Benevolent Senior Citizens, Sunday School, and Wednesday Night Bible Study. She enjoyed being involved with these ministries until her health declined. On Tuesdays, she enjoyed riding the transit bus with her friends to Ahoskie

Ida Ruth was preceded in death by her parents; Walter and Eugenia Collins; two sisters, Clara and Inez; and a brother, William; and her husband, the late John Manley.

Ida Ruth Manley leaves to cherish her memories: her brother, Raymond (Rose) of Anderson, South Carolina; her sister, Dora Powell (George) of Cofield, North Carolina; a step-daughter, Theresa Manley Edwards (Tony) of Harrellsville, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Ida Ruth Manley

November 09, 2022 at 12:28 PM

“ John Askew lit a candle in memory of Ida Ruth Manley

John Askew - August 12, 2019 at 09:57 PM

I will always love you like a mother RIP

John Askew - August 12, 2019 at 09:58 PM