

James Edward Miller

July 31, 1944 - July 14, 2020

James Edward Miller "PEP", son of Wade H. Miller and Lula Saunders Miller, was born on July 31, 1944 in Oriental, North Carolina. He was called to eternal rest on July 14, 2020 at Vidant-Roanoke Chowan Hospital in Ahoskie, North Carolina.

James attended Pamlico County Training School in Stonewall, North Carolina. After several years at the training school, he was employed by the City of New Bern for several years. He was very skilled with his hands. If you had a lawn mover or bicycle that needed repair, James was the man for the job.

James joined Pilgrim Chapel Church at an early age. He attended church and Sunday School faithfully, and was a soul supporter of the church through tithes and offerings. After relocating to Gatesville, North Carolina, he became a new member at St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church in Sunbury, North Carolina.

James leaves to cherish his memories: his sisters, Marilyn Gaskins (Eugene) of Bayboro, North Carolina, Viola Moore and Annie Cannon both of Oriental, North Carolina, Joyce Credle (Garfield), of Bayboro, North Carolina, and Grace Barfield of Maryland; a brother-in-law, Thomas Jones of Oriental, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; as well as a special nephew, Tony Manuel; and a special friend, Esther Riddick.
