

Jean Riddick

November 20, 1941 - July 23, 2021

JEAN RIDDICK was the youngest of four children born to the late Samuel Riddick, Sr., and Bettie Z. Gatling Riddick on November 20, 1941, in Mapleton, North Carolina located in Hertford County. She departed this life on July 23, 2021.

Jean joined Parker's Grove Baptist Church at an early age and remained a faithful member until she moved to New York City.

She was nurtured in a loving home where her parents instilled in their children religious convictions, high morals and ethical standards, and the need to acquire a good education.

She was educated in the public schools of Hertford County. Upon graduation from Calvin Scott Brown High School in Winton, North Carolina in 1959, she attended North Carolina Central University in Durham, North Carolina, and graduated in June 1963 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology.

Religiously, she continued to dedicate her life to God at the Abyssinian Baptist Church working to complete God's plan for her life. After all, it is only what you do for Him that will last.

Jean's life work was for the city of New York in the Department of Social Services.

Her parents, Samuel, Sr. and Bettie Gatling Riddick, and her brother Samuel, Riddick, Jr. preceded her in death.

However, she leaves to cherish her memories, two sisters, Lucradia and Mary Evelyn Riddick of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; a nephew, Brian Eure of

Chatham, New Jersey; a great-niece and husband, a great-great niece, and a host of relatives and friends

“ Jean was a loving co worker of mine at the Department of Social Services. She actually trained me when I was newly hired to work at the Office of Quality Assurance. I am now finding out that she is no longer with us. Believe it or not I just had a dream about her. We were discussing retirement.
