*Brother you always brought a good spirit with you when you came to see us at River Road. A Big smile and a Bigger laugh. Tony , Melissa and the shop boys were really hurt when we heard of your passing. I am so glad that I called him while he was in the hospital. I will cherish that last conversation. Brother your name will come up often at River Road and there will be plenty of smiles when it does. May the Lord send great strength to your family. He is our hope! Jesse would hope that someone would find Jesus as their Lord and Savior through his testimony.
Love You Brother*
