to the parker family my condolences to the family there is so much i can say about this beautiful lady was a friend from childhood until death she will truly be miss but we no god never makes no mistake she was loved by all but god loved her more. to the children remember the years that mother was always there from the begining to the end i can say its nothing that i or no one else can say bad about luceda she was nice we all have done thangs that god did not approve of but he still loves us so my friend go on and take your rest thank god for the 60 years u was here with us rip friend until we meet again remember family if we all live right we will see her again a family that prays together stays together so lets all do as i no she would want us to do love one another reat on my friend will b miss
