

Ma'Lisa Mitchell Porter

December 28, 1975 - December 31, 2021

Ma'Lisa Mitchell Porter was the daughter of James Wayne Rogers and the late Gloria Denise Rogers. She began her journey through life on December 28, 1975, in Hertford County, North Carolina. She began her education at Northampton County East and completed her education in Northampton County Public Schools.

Later in life, she joined Nebo Baptist Church where she started her Christian journey.

"Lisa" as she was affectionately known, loved life, family, and friends. She loved being a nurse and caring for her patients. If you knew Lisa, you knew that she had a passion for her style and helping others.

Ma'Lisa was employed at Sunrise of Cary Assisted Living until God called her home. She was united in matrimony to Clayton Porter.

Those left to cherish her memories are: her husband, Clayton Porter of the home; her father, James Wayne Rogers of Patterson, New Jersey; her children, Leeza Copeland of Ahoskie, North Carolina, Jurious Blythe of Ahoskie, North Carolina, and Demetrius Joyner of the home; her step-children, Keauna, Kadisha, LaKeisha, Devonnya, Naja, Nakia, Destiny, and Devonne; her siblings, James Wayne Mitchell (Benketa) of Garysburg, North Carolina, Latoya Jacobs (Donovan) of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, Timothy Richardson of Seaboard, North Carolina, Terri Richardson of Pleasant Hill, North Carolina, Sierra Long of Raleigh, North Carolina, Wayne Rogers of Newark, New Jersey, and Marcus Rogers of the home; her sisters in love,

Tammy Holley (Melvin) of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, and Mary Porter of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, and one brother in love, the late Raleigh Porter, Jr., 11 grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends, and special friends, Audrey Gilliam, Stephanie Wade, and her Sunrise coworkers.
