“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of my dear friend and classmate at Robert L. Vann. I grew up with the Holloman family who lived a few houses from the Wiggins family in Aulander, NC. My deepest sympathy to the Taylor-Holloman family. May you all be comforted and strengthened by the love of God and the peace of God today and the weeks and months to come. May you also take comfort in knowing that we will see Rita again in the great throne room of our Heavenly Father at a glorious reunion in Heaven. May her beautiful spirit and legacy continue to live through her children and grandchildren. With love, sympathy and prayer, Barbra Wiggins Matthews

To the Taylor/Holloman Families, So sorry to hear of the passing of Rita. Beautiful Singing Lady. I always enjoyed being around her when her Sister Mamie and I got together to laugh, talk, eat and most of all to talk about Jesus and our children. May Rita Rest in Heaven until we meet again.
