

Margaret Marie Williams Hicks

December 12, 1924 - October 18, 2022

Margaret lived a full and blessed life and joined Revelle Hill Baptist Church at a young age. She was the matriarch of the family. Margaret was a skilled seamstress who not only made her clothes, but clothes for the family. As an avid gardener, she loved to work in the soil. The fruits of her labor provided food for the family and community. Everyone loved Margaret and she loved them back. The best parties were at her home. Some of the local gospel groups started in her home. One thing the family will tell you is that Margaret knew how to keep a secret.

A hardworking woman, she worked the fields as a sharecropper doing farm work, modeling an excellent work ethic.

Margaret was a woman of few words, but when she spoke, her words were purposeful and profound. She had the biggest heart! Whether or not anyone needed anything, she shared everything-passing this trait to everyone she touched. Last but not least, anyone who knew Margaret knows how much she loved her grandchildren. Her light touched a multitude of generations, but 97 years later, the Lord gently dimmed her light so she can meet Him and other loved ones.

Margaret the daughter of the late Octave and LenDora Williams, was born December 12, 1924 and called home to be with the Lord October 18, 2022. In 1946, she was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Mr. Clayton Hicks, Sr., who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by three children; Phyllis H. Pierce, Carrie D. Tann and Clayton R. Hicks, Jr; fifteen siblings; and one grandson, Dwan Winborne.

Margaret leaves to cherish her precious memories; two daughters, Rebecca Hicks of Ahoskie, North Carolina, and Victoria H. Dickerson (Leon) of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; one son, Jimmy L. Hicks (Joscelyn) of Cameron, North Carolina; one sister, Annie Droughn of Newport News, Virginia; one sister-in-law, Eva Williams of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; 16 grandchildren; 39 great-grandchildren; 27 great-great grand children; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ May the family find comfort knowing that their loved Margaret is dancing with the Angels that took her home to our Lord Jesus. I loved the old days when I saw her out in the yard or sweeping the porch or watching over her loved grandchildren. Such a good hardworking woman. God Bless her family.
