

Marion Alonza McFadden

May 15, 2021

Marion Alonza McFadden was called to his eternal rest on Monday, May 15, 2021 at his home in Manning, South Carolina.

Marion was the son of the late Paul Alonza McFadden and the late Eva Brown. He was born on July 16, 1938 in Clarendon County in New Zion, South Carolina.

Marion was reared in a Christian home. He joined Friendship Presbyterian Church at an early age where his spiritual growth was fostered by loving parents who kept him in Sunday School, studying and learning the Catechism. He enjoyed singing in the church choir and trying his hand at the piano.

Marion received his formal education at Walker Gamble High School in New Zion, South Carolina, where he graduated with honors in 1957.

Marion served 24 years (1961-1985) in the United States Air Force as an Administrative Officer in Vietnam. He ranked as a Master Sergeant.

Marion was preceded in death by his son, Dornell McFadden.

Marion leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Cathy McFadden of 26 years, his daughter-in-law, Gwendolyn McFadden, one daughter, Patricia Whitaker (Alphonso); three step-daughters, seven grandchildren, five step-grandchildren, two step-great-grandchildren; one sister, Gladys McFaddin; one brother, Thomas McFadden; two sisters-in-law, Edna McFadden and Patty McFaddin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
