

Melvin Jerome Williams

July 7, 1964 - November 23, 2021

When the Lord Sweetly Whispered his name, Melvin quietly answered His call. Melvin Jerome Williams was born on July 7, 1964, to Josie Marie Williams and the late Luther Wright Powell. He departed this life on November 23, 2021, at Vidant-Edgecombe Hospital in Tarboro, North Carolina.

At an early age, he joined St Paul Holiness Church in Carver Park, of Murfreesboro, North Carolina. Melvin attended the Hertford County Public School System. Melvin began to work at an early age. He worked and managed several restaurants.

Melvin grew and developed into a sweet and compassionate young man, who never met a stranger! Everyone knew Melvin by his infectious smile that could brighten anyone's day. His smile was warm. He had a sweet personality along with a great fashion sense.

Melvin was a sweet person both inside and out. He had unconditional love for his family and friends. He had a sweet spirit and was thankful for the things God gave him. To know Melvin was to love him.

Melvin joined St John AME Church under the leadership of Pastor Allen Warren in Raleigh, North Carolina. He served on the usher board, sang in the choir, and was a faithful member of the Son of Allen.

Melvin leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Josie Marie Williams of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; three brothers, Alton Leon White (Carol) of Atlanta, Georgia, Michael D. Williams and David Lee Eason (Lucille) of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; a stepbrother, Henry Moore (Katy) of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; four sisters, Joyce A. Morgan (Earnest) of Waterbury, Connecticut, Angela W. Fennell (Melvin) of Ahoskie, North Carolina, Subrenia Long (Kurt) and Kerry Williams of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, three aunts, Eunice Eley, and Doris Eley of Murfreesboro, North Carolina, and Mildred Lassiter (Larry) of Ahoskie, North Carolina; one uncle, Eddie White (Evelyn) of Newsom, Virginia; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and a special niece, LaSheka Jenkins of Waterbury, Connecticut, and a special friend of the family, LaSheka Peeples of Murfreesboro, North Carolina.
