

Sarah Jones

July 7, 1929 - January 2, 2021

The Life of a Virtuous Woman-

Sarah Lee Barham Jones received her angel wings on Saturday, January 2nd, 2021.

Sarah Lee was born on Sunday, July 7th, 1929 to the late Mamie and Freeman Barham, Sr. on Barham Road in Como, North Carolina. She was the second child of six children. At an early age, she learned the value of hard work on the family farm. She would have to wake up early to help on the family farm before attending school. Sarah received her early education at Mount Sinai and Mill Neck School. She also attended Calvin Scott Brown High School in Winton, North Carolina. In the 1950s, Sarah and her late brother, Leslie received their GED.

Christianity was very important to her family, so she joined Mount Sinai Baptist Church at age 12. During her youth, she ushered and participated in the choir. As an adult, she served as an usher, the Ebony Club secretary, and a member of the Kitchen Ministry. She loved her church very much and attended as long as she could. In May of 1966, she married the love of her life; the late Charlie Jones. They were married until his death on September of 1985. Sarah was a great cook and an awesome seamstress. She made clothes and offered alterations for many years. She worked as a housekeeper for the Taylor Family, a babysitter, and a private duty caretaker for the Howell Family. Sarah loved her family and she enjoyed spoiling her grandchildren. Sarah had health challenges, but she still had her sense of humor. She enjoyed joking with her friends and family. Sarah was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and her siblings- Ruth Banks, William, Leslie, and Freeman Barham.

Those left to cherish her memory are: three daughters; Mary Virginia Blythe, Sarah Beatrice Robinson, and Shirley Yvonne Worthington; six grandchildren, George Williams, Ashley Williams, Jonathan Robinson, Jason Robinson Christopher (Chris) Jones (wife-Latia), and Cory Worthington; her Sister-Mamie Edna Sugars; two sisters-in-law, Betty Jones Parker and Gladys Barham; a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends that she loved dearly.

Sarah will be missed, but we will see her again according to the words in 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18! "A beautiful rose was plucked!"

“ Sarah was such an amazing woman and a beautiful soul. She was such an important part of my childhood that I can't imagine the world without her. I will always remember her, showing me how to make cornbread in the kitchen. God has called home one of the most beautiful souls He ever placed on this earth.

“ To Christopher, Corey, and the family of Sarah Barham Jones, on behalf of Julia Barham Myrick's family, we extend our sincerest sympathies to each of you. My mother (Julia C. Bradley) and I enjoyed the visits we had with Sarah. She was always so glad to see us, and so welcoming. The cousins truly had memorable reunions when we came to Como. Sarah always had a gentle spirit about her. We are so very sorry for your loss. We are praying that God will comfort and keep you, today and always. Chris, may those fond memories you have of your grandmother be forever embedded in your heart. Denise R. Bynum (Chesapeake, VA) and Julia C. Bradley (Suffolk).
