

Viola Farmer

May 14, 1935 - March 26, 2021

Viola Elizabeth Hoggard Farmer was born on May 14, 1935, to the late William Hoggard and Belva Heckstall Hoggard in Windsor, North Carolina. She departed this life on March 26, 2021, at her home in Murfreesboro, North Carolina.

Viola was educated in the Hertford County School System and attended Robert L Vann High School in Ahoskie, North Carolina.

Viola made her home in Brooklyn, New York, where she married Hobert Farmer who preceded her in death. Viola and Hobert were members of the First AME Zion Church in Brooklyn and were owners of the "Two N" One Dust and Pest Control Control Company. After the passing of Hobert, Viola relocated to North Carolina to be near her beloved daughter, Sandra.

Viola loved dolls and had acquired an extensive collection. She also enjoyed hosting and spending time with her family.

In addition to her parents and her husband, Hobert, Viola was preceded in death by three sisters, Ada Freeman, Shirlene Eason, and Beatrice Fennell; and one brother, William Benjamin Hoggard.

Viola leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter; Sandra Earley of Murfreesboro, North Carolina; one sister, Helen Heckstall of Suffolk, Virginia; three brothers, John Hoggard (Delores) of Charlotte, North Carolina, Henry Hoggard (Brenda) of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Ernest Hoggard of Wilson, North Carolina; one sister-in-law, Ann Hoggard of Atlanta, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins who will cherish her dearly and will certainly miss her, saying, "Come give Auntie some sugar", and her very special friend Ms. Emma Pruden of Winton, North Carolina.
