

Vivian Virginia Riddick

December 22, 1942 - September 16, 2022

Vivian Virginia Riddick was called to her Heavenly Home, at Accordius Health and Rehabilitation Center in Gatesville, North Carolina, on Friday, September 16, 2022 . She was born on December 22, 1942 to the late Willie Elizabeth and James Earl Saunders.

Vivian was a lifelong resident of Gates County. She attended Gates County Public Schools and graduated from Central High School.

She later was certified as a Nurse's Assistant while at Roanoke-Chowan Manor. She was employed at Guardian Care Health and Rehabilitation Center in Ahoskie, North Carolina for over 40 years, until her health failed.

Vivian was married to George Oscar Riddick for 60 years and to this union one daughter, Connie V. Riddick was born.

Vivian was well known for her warm smile to all she met. She loved people and displayed kindness to her family, friends and all those that she met on her job.

She enjoyed shopping, going to the Beauty Parlor having family and friend gatherings, eating-out at Duck-Thru, Tarheel and many other restaurants.

Vivian had a love for cooking and was famous for her "Tomato Pudding".

Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, Curtis Lee Saunders, and one sister, Mary Marie Saunders.

Vivian leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter, Connie Riddick of Gates, North Carolina; one sister, Susie Burrus (James Mack) of Corapeake, North Carolina; one brother, Thomas Earl Saunders, Sr. (Landria) of Gates,

North Carolina; three sisters-in-law, Evelyn Saunders of Gates, North Carolina, Eula Mae Gordon of Gatesville, North Carolina, and Pauline Holley of Gates, North Carolina; one brother-in-law, Leon Riddick (Marie) of Winton, North Carolina; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
